This text contains four print tests and access to an online practice test extract. Helpful assessment criteria for the speaking and writing tasks has also been included.

These five practice tests closely replicate the Cambridge Certificate in Advanced English in both content and presentation, therefore providing realistic exam practice at the level of the CAE. This new edition incorporates all the changes made to the CAE examination (1999 and 2000), offering practice in the new exam formats. In addition to these changes, numerous revisions have been made to ensure that these tests accurately reflect the current exam. (The authors are closely involved with the CAE and as such have in-depth knowledge of all the papers. (Each of the texts in Papers 1 and 3 comes from a different source, giving students experience in dealing with a wide variety of reading material. (Photocopiable answer sheets enable students to practise transferring their answers from the test paper, reducing the risk of making mistakes under pressure in the actual exam. (Genuine examination conditions are simulated for Paper 4 Listening through the inclusion of instructions, pauses and repeats on the cassettes. (Full colour photographs and illustrations are included for Paper 5 Speaking. (All five tests have been piloted with groups of students preparing for the CAE. The With Answers edition contains information on marking and sample student answers to the Paper 2 Part 1 writing tasks, in addition to a full key and scripts of the recorded material.

'House' has long been synonymous with 'home': the significance of four walls and a roof lies far deeper than simply shelter from the elements. A house stands for sanctuary, family, belonging, privacy and our pasts: even when standardised as a 'Barratt Home' or modern housing estate, every house bears the stamp of the people who live in it, remaining a bastion of quirky individualism. The Great Indoors is the first cultural history of the family home in the twentieth century, comparable to Rachel Hewitt's Map of a Nation or Joe Moran's Queuing for Beginners. As society has changed, so has the house: the hall - which had its finest hour during the middle ages, when families and their servants ate, slept and socialised there together - has now been relegated to a mere passageway, only useful for getting to other (more private) rooms. Highmore shows how houses display the currents of class, identity and social transformation that are displayed in the arrangement and use of the family home. And he also offers an engaging and stimulating peek through the curtains to explain why the fridge is used as a communication centre, how the loo (or toilet) inspired its very own literary genre and what your furniture arrangement reveals about how you function as a family.
