Copper mining in the area began late in the Spanish colonial period, but it was not until 1803 that Francisco Manuel Elgueta, a Chihuahua banker and businessman, founded the town of Santa Rita. He named it Santa Rita del Cobre (Saint Rita of the Copper), after Saint Rita of Cascia and the existing mine. During the early 19th century the mine produced over 6 million pounds of copper annually. The crudely smelted ore was shipped to Chihuahua for further smelting and then sent to Mexico City ...
