restricted to an effect of works of art, the term "aesthetic" is justified by the fact that it etymologically gestures towards a quasi-perceptual quality of the imaginative experience involved and implies an awareness, typical of the reception of art, that "illusion" is triggered by an artifact rather than (an, e.g., magic) reality.

Illusion (Aesthetic) | the living handbook of narratology

In other words, aesthetic illusion is a double-layered phenomenon in which recipients constantly fluctuate between their "virtual" body on the level of immersion (primarily imaginatively and emotionally) and their "real" body on the level of rational awareness and distance. Illusionist media or artifacts can either be
