Napoleon was already one of the greatest generals in European history. At thirty, he had become absolute master of Europe's most powerful country. In his early forties, he ruled a European empire more powerful than any since Rome, fighting wars that changed the shape of

possible the
unprecedented concentration of political authority that Napoleon accrued,
and his success in
mobilizing human and
material resources.
Without the political changes brought about by the revolution, Napoleon
could not have fought his wars. Without the
